

Proposal design highlights the dry docks as positive image elements and connects these spaces with each others by neutralized corridors. The façade of buildings will be covered with red textile to neutralize the corridors. The aim of neutralizing this area is that drawing attention to the dry docks. Surfaces of the buildings will be on of the main elements of design.

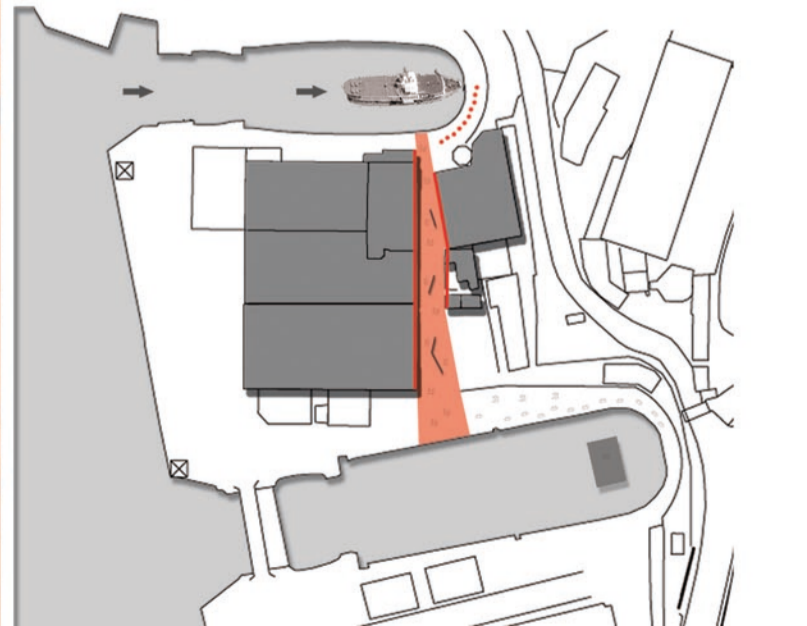

C1

CONNECTION1

With this aim, dry docks are highlighted as activity zones and corridors where connects them are designed neutralized zones.

CONNECTION2

O2